

Cookie policy

Our website uses cookies in order to keep statistics through Google Analytics, among others. Further information on the use of cookies can be found in our privacy statement.

During a visit to the website, cookies can be placed on your computer's hard drive. A cookie is a text file placed by a website's server in your computer's browser or on your mobile device, whenever you visit a website. Cookies cannot be used to identify people, a cookie can only identify a machine.

On this website cookies are used for.

'First party cookies' are technical cookies used by the visited website aimed at optimum operation of the website. Example: settings adjusted by the user during previous visits, or: a form with data previously completed by the user during previous visits.

'Third Party cookies' are cookies that do not originate from the website itself, but from third parties, e.g., a marketing or advertising plug-in. (For example, Facebook or Google Analytics cookies.)

You can adjust the settings on your Internet browser so that cookies are not accepted, that you receive a warning whenever a cookie is installed or that the cookies are subsequently removed from your hard drive. You can do this through your browser's settings (through the help function). Do take into account that specific graphic elements may not appear correctly or that you will be unable to use specific applications.
